

Basics of Ritual Construction w/ Rev. Deborah Bourbon, R.N.

Rituals can be powerfully defining moments along our spiritual journey. Personal rituals, the ones that we have created and birthed, can be even more profound and illuminating. This class looks at the various aspects of ritual construction. From the ritual sections themselves, to wording and timing, as well as preparation of self and place, aspects are covered in detail. Empowering, yet easy to understand, this class takes the ability to create effective rituals and places it into your hands. Now you can create your own rituals to honor, explore, and discover facets of your spiritual journey. Thurs 3/1, 7-9:30 pm $35. Only time offered this year.

Pantheons for the Seasons w/ Bill

During the upcoming year, spend a season with a pantheon. Each month of each season will have 2 classes per month, on Tuesdays 7 – 9 pm focusing on a particular pantheon, Greek for the 1st Quarter. However, instead of a second class the third month, there will be a ritual performed using a deity of that pantheon. Each class will be two hours long, and has an investment of $30. March class is on 3/6, Ritual is on 3/20 By attending all of the classes, the ritual will be free. The ritual will be performed by Bill and Mel. If you do not attend all of the classes, the ritual can still be attended with an investment of $20. There are no pre-requisites for the classes or the rituals. However, ritual etiquette will be expected and enforced.
